FUNASTICS – Four effortless MiniVIBRATORS for unlimited experimenting

Lust for life!

The year's first rays of sunshine awaken a desire for more; a desire to be outside, for vacation, and a thirst for adventure. Easygoing moments in the park, at the lake, or at festivals anywhere in the world – memories like these are popping up and bringing smiles to faces. If it would just be spring already! The colorful FUNASTICS celebrate this easygoing love of life.

Bremen, February 2015 – BUDDY, CHICO, FIZZY and SCOOBY are the names of the brand new rechargeable MiniVIBRATORS from FUN FACTORY. These four individuals inspire with neon colors and practical designs. Available alone or in a set, this dream team brings a ton of excitement and freedom into your love life. FUNASTICS open the door to creating unforgettable moments and celebrating effortless fun with sex. Life and desire are wonderfully exciting, unpredictable and full of adventure. What are we waiting for?

The compact FUNASTICS easily fill a spot in any bag, backpack, or glove compartment, making them the perfect companion. A removable rechargeable BULLET fits snugly in the shaft made of body-friendly silicone and rocks with its 5 vibration programs. FUNASTICS are at home in the water, on secluded beaches, in snowed-in mountain huts, or festival tents. After 2-4 hours of continuous use, only then do these little lady-killers need to be refueled. Thanks to the USB MAGNETIC CHARGER it's super uncomplicated to recharge in the car, with a laptop, or via a power bank. For never ending FUN!

BUDDY – the cheeky one

Always follow your nose! Never before has this saying led to so much fun than in the case of BUDDY. Right on target he points his little nose straight to the G-spot, clitoris and nipples. Particularly suited for inexperienced toy users who will be transported to seventh heaven by his uncomplicated manner.

Length 12.5 cm, Ø 2.0 cm in Neon Orange

CHICO – a real character

Gentle and firm, demanding and seductive – CHICO is a diverse lover. The ball shape is pleasantly filling and pleases the g-spot. The flexible arm gathers the intense vibrations from the rechargeable BULLET and gently passes them on to the especially sensitive parts of the body. Guaranteed to thrill!

Length 13.5 cm, Ø 1.4 cm in Neon Yellow

FIZZY – the elegant one

FIZZY's organically curved silhouette compliments human anatomy and can pleasure a wide area or zero in on the sensitive spots like the vulva, clitoris, penis, and nipples. The loop means it can be held with one finger, guaranteeing particularly precise (self)pleasuring.

Length 13.2 cm, Ø 2.3 cm in Pink

SCOOBY – the multi-tasker

As a lay-on vibrator the SCOOBY pleases all the external erogenous zones, and the tapered back nestles naturally into the labia. SCOOBY's curious tip can reach the clitoris spot on and when inserted is especially filling.

Length 13.3 cm, Ø 2.2 cm in Violet

BUDDY, CHICO, FIZZY and SCOOBY are available individually with a BULLET or also as a set of 4 sheaths and one VibrationBULLET.
